Review – by Damian Thorne

I've started using sharpie pens when I review so I can see my notes in the dark. During GODSPELL I wrote so much I was heightened from the fumes and from the very original production unfolding before me.

It's wonderful to see ACT THREE PRODUCTIONS return to their roots with a smaller show, although definitely not in stature, with a focus on the music with some wonderful detailing by Musical Director Bronwyn Boddy, a sublime five piece band, and a director in Michael Doody who was allowed to let his creativity shine.

Doody has achieved a rare chemistry in his entire young cast ...

This GODSPELL has originality, energy, commitment and fabulous chemistry. Boom – it's a hit!

Andrew Lloyd Webber's Cinderella to close in the West End

by Gillian Russo

Carrie Hope Fletcher plays the title role in Cinderella - described by critics as having a "snappy contemporary edge"

The clock has struck midnight for Cinderella in the West End. Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical has set a West End closing date of 12 June. The closure was announced on 1 May via social media and a statement from Lloyd Webber. "I am incredibly proud of Cinderella. Not only did it get some of the best reviews of my career, but we led the charge to reopen the West End, ensuring that theatre and live entertainment remained relevant and in the news. While mounting a new show in the midst of COVID has been an unbelievable challenge, we held the government's feet to the flames throughout their changes of heart during the pandemic." Webber also said in his statement that he is in the process of bringing Cinderella to Broadway in 2023. At the time of its West End closing, Cinderella will have run at the Gillian Lynne Theatre for just under a year. The show, which was initially slated to open in March 2020, began performances on 25 June 2021 after multiple delays amid COVID-19. The London Theatre review of Cinderella reads, "Andrew Lloyd Webber's Cinderella is a different kind of fairytale, one that ... reminds us of our humanity and that sometimes things turn out as you least expect them to." In addition to music by Webber, Cinderella features lyrics by David Zippel, a book by Emerald Fennell, and direction by Laurence Connor. Carrie Hope Fletcher stars in the titular role and the cast also featured Victoria Hamilton-Barritt, who received the production's sole Olivier Award nomination in 2022.

Andrew Lloyd Webber's production, starring Carrie Hope Fletcher as Cinderella, opened last August

& Juliet to host sing-along performance

by Sophie Thomas

Throw some glitter, make it rain!

The pop musical & Juliet will invite audiences to sing along for one night only in the West End. A sing along performance of & Juliet will take place at the Shaftesbury Theatre on 6 June. During the performance, screens around the Shaftesbury Theatre auditorium will display the lyrics to every song. The & Juliet musical includes hits such as 'Love Me Like You Do', 'Confident' and 'Roar'. "We wanted to create a special occasion where everyone is welcome to join in and have as much fun singing our songs as the actors do every night - when normally we ask the audience to leave the performing to them!" said director Luke Sheppard. "A key message of the show is celebrating inclusivity through the magic of theatre, and our hope is that this event continues to open up this show to new audiences as well as those who want to experience the show in a unique way." Miriam-Teak Lee leads the & Juliet cast as Juliet, joined by The Greatest Showman star Keala Settle as the Nurse, Cassidy Janson as Anne Hathaway, Oliver Tompsett as William Shakespeare, Tim Mahendran as Francois and Alex Thomas-Smith as May, Tom Francis as Romeo and Julius D'Silva as Lance.
